DATE OF ORDER : - 9.7.2007

HON'BLE MR.PRAKASH TATIA,J.

Mr.Shambhoo Singh,for the petitioner.

<><><>

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners.

The several Pattas were granted to the various persons on 20th Nov., 2004 by the Gram Panchayat Mundara. Those Pattas were challenged by preferring revisions petitions before the Addl. District Collector, Pali, who allowed the revisions petitions vide order dated 26th April, 2007 and set aside the Pattas which were issued by the Gram Panchayat on 20th Nov., 2004. The petitioners have challenged the order of the Addl. Collector, Pali dated 26th Spet., 2007 in these petitions.

The petitioners have placed on record the copies of the minutes of the Gram Panchayat as well as the petitioners' application submitted for getting the plot, site inspection report and notice inviting the objections.

It appears that the learned Addl. District Collector after perusing the entire record found that the land could have been allotted on concessional rate only to persons of the specified categories. It is also submitted that the applicants failed to prove their any eligibility for getting the land by allotment and, therefore, the Gram Panchayat may now sell the land by following the procedure of auction.

In view of the detail reasons given in the impugned order dated 26th April, 2007 and the proceedings copy of which has been placed on record by the petitioners, I do not find that the learned Addl. District Collector has committed any error of law and fact in setting aside the Patta.

Hence, the writ petitions of the petitioner are dismissed.

(PRAKASH TATIA), J.
